Pre-Deployment Family Readiness Workshop (PDFRC)

- Navy Reserve's Primary Pre-Deployment Readiness Event
- Meets YRRP criteria
- All RC Sailors and their Family are encouraged to attend. Other Service RC members attend on a space available basis.
- PDFRCs provide education and resolution of issues prior to the rigors of a deployment and the challenges of family separation
- Events must be registered on the YRRP portal www.dodyrrp.org
- Local attendance records required
- After Action Report required

- Reference: CNRFINST 1342.1
- In existence since July 2009. Since then:
  - 22,604 Sailors and 14,343 families have attended
- Feedback from first year has been overwhelmingly positive!
- PDFRC Schedule available through regional Warrior & Family Support Program Specialists or on www.dodyrrp.org

Deployment Support Events

- Units support is provided via the Ombudsman Program and Family Readiness Groups
- Individuals Augmentees (IAs) support is contained in USFF IA grams.
- The Command IA coordinator (CIAC) is tasked with monthly contact with both the deployed Sailor and their family
- Tracking of Family Contact is via the CIAC Module of Navy Family Accountability Assessment System (NFAAS)
